

Rembrandt Recruits Bright, New Talent

November 1, 2010 - Williamsville, NY: Rembrandt Charms is proud to introduce three new employees. Nicole Butchart and Colin Freeburg are new Customer Service Representatives who will manage business operations as well as special projects. John English has been appointed Lead Graphic Designer for the company.

Nicole Butchart comes to Rembrandt after graduating from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where she was awarded an academic scholarship and was a Ford Saunders Scholar. Ms. Butchart majored in Communications with a minor in Biology. Prior to coming to Rembrandt, she supervised Eckerd College's Waterfront Sailing and Wakeboarding programs. Today, Ms. Butchart is a champion sailor who has sailed competitively throughout the U.S. and Canada. She still sails competitively with select clubs.

Colin Freeburg joins Rembrandt from Canisius College. Mr. Freeburg majored in Accounting and was on the Dean's List and the Accounting Department Honor Roll. He currently has one semester remaining to obtain his MBA from Canisius College. Prior to joining Rembrandt, Mr. Freeburg worked as a Financial Services Intern at Dopkins & Company in Buffalo, NY. In his free time, Mr. Freeburg is an avid kickboxer and enjoys fishing.

John English joins Rembrandt's Marketing Department after graduating from Buffalo State College Magna Cum Laude. Mr. English holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree with All College Honors Citation. Prior to Rembrandt, Mr. English worked for Cenergy in East Aurora, New York as a Graphic Designer. His favorite pastime includes playing bass guitar in his blues band.

Rembrandt formally welcomes these new hires to the team and to the jewelry industry.
